

What's the purpose of this series?

1. To focus on the role of the Holy Spirit in our lives as he empowers us to live the story and witness to the world of Jesus' life changing power.
 2. In light of God's spirit within us, we'll tackle some of the "tough questions" we all face in life and in sharing our faith with others.
-

Dates & Topics

9/30 – How it all began

A look at how the power of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost enabled Christianity to "get legs" and spread rapidly throughout the middle-east despite the enormous challenges the movement faced in the beginning.

10/7 – Same God, Same Plan, New Covenant

Is the God of the Old Testament the same as the God we see in Jesus? Does the picture ever look distorted to you? Has anyone ever challenged your view of Jesus based on their perception of God in the OT? The picture is clearer than you think.

10/14 – Filled Up

The Bible tells us that all Christ followers can be "full" of God's Spirit and power and thereby be enabled to be His witnesses. Since power is really influence, how does God enable us to influence other people to receive the truth?

10/21 – Do all roads lead to God?

It's called universalism, but it's anything but true. As Christ followers, what are we to say to people who believe that all roads lead to God? Get some practical and powerful information to help you answer this question.

10/28 – Poured Out

How can we be witnesses for Christ when we face struggles and temptations of our own? Don't we have to have our lives together before we try to help other people? Learn how the Holy Spirit empowers you to be a witness in spite of AND by means of your personal struggles.

11/4 – Why do good people suffer?

The age-old question, bound to come up as you begin to share your faith. Even Christians struggle trying to reconcile "God's love" with the reality that even the young and innocent suffer. How can we respond to this question?

11/11 – Who wrote the Bible?

As the author of this ancient text, the Holy Spirit is still speaking. And the author is still the best interpreter. Discover how the Bible is a divinely inspired story of God's redeeming love for humanity.

11/28 – The Bible: Fact or Fiction?

Another big question, right? Is the Bible for real? Is it history? Is it simply a book of fables and fairy tales? Does the Bible ever get it wrong? Come and be a part of unearthing some real answers to these questions.